 London is the capital city of England and one of the biggest cities in the world ! The inhabitants of London are called the Londoners. It's not very far from Paris : approximately 2 hours by train ! You'll have to go under the Channel and take the Eurostar first !
 In London, there is the river Thames. On this river, you can go on a cruise boat for a city tour ! You can also ride the London Eye to have a magnificent view of Tower Bridge, The Gerkin or Buckingham Palace (the Queen's home). Don't forget to take a look at the taxis and the double-decker buses ! They look so small from the top of the London Eve !

CIVILISATION

Londres est la capitale du Royaume-Uni (Angleterre, Ecosse, Pays de Galles et Irlande du Nord) et l'une des villes les plus peuplées au monde : environ 14 millions d'habitants. Ces derniers s'appellent en anglais les Londoners. Cette ville est le siège du gouvernement et la résidence du premier ministre, au 10 Downing Street.

L'une des attractions les plus appréciées est le London Eye : construite en 1999 et appelée la roue du Millénaire, c'est une grande roue qui donne aux visiteurs une vue aérienne de Londres, d'une hauteur de 135 mètres. Elle se trouve sur la rive sud de la Tamise. De ce monument on peut voir Tower Bridge, mais aussi la résidence de la Reine : Buckingham Palace. C'est une des résidences officielles de la Reine Elizabeth II, avec le château de Windsor. Elle est l'une des personnes les plus riches au monde.

Comme moyens de transports, les Londoniens peuvent utiliser le métro, les bus rouges à étages, les taxis, mais aussi les vélos avec un service similaire au Vélib en France. On peut également faire de courtes croisières sur la Tamise.
